

Annaliese K-G Thank you Karen!

I was really inspired by Karen's visit. She encouraged me to read more books, the books I want to read are Shadow, Overboard and The Other Side to truth. Now the Author I am into now is Michael Morpurgo. My favourite part of the lesson was when you showed us the badge we all sleep under the same stars.

You inspired me to think more about refugees and asylum seekers and write poems about what happened in the world war period.

Jaden J

I really enjoyed learning with Karen and I would love to read one of the books she brought in. I got quite sad about how all of the refugees had to go to camps. I also liked the saying "We all sleep under the same stars."

Take.

I really enjoyed Karen Argent's visit and have been inspired to read some of the books about refugees - The Boy in the Striped Pyjamas and When Hitler Stole Pink Rabbit. She read some books and made us think what it would be like to be a refugee. We also looked some pictures of destroyed homes and what people had to go through. She also told us about the slogan "We all sleep under the same stars" by the Klu Klux K.

Karen's visit made me think about the refugees. She inspired me to read The Other Side Of Truth and some of the other books she showed us.

Olivia

Karen has inspired me to read 'When Hitler Stole Pink Rabbit' which is about a little girl, Anna who is a refugee.

Zain.

I enjoyed Karen's visit because she got me more enthused about reading and writing books. She recommended a really interesting book 'The Other Side of Truth'.

Tyler H

I liked her visit because she showed us books of refugees. I would really liked the story line of Hitler stole pink rabbit. She also showed us a badge which said 'We all sleep under the same stars'.

Charlie B

Karen inspired me to read the book, 'The other side of Truth'. She taught me about refugees and showed me the quotes, 'We all sleep under the same stars'. I am going to write a story involving that quote.
Thank you! Ruby

I'm honestly so shocked at how Karen inspired me to read more and understand how lucky we are to have a roof over our heads and a great family with us.
It quite upset me of how lives
can be changed in a few minutes
so I'm so grateful for her visit. Thank You Karen from Eve.

I really liked Karen's visit and enjoyed learning about refugees.
I was inspired to read 'The Journey'
I am looking forward to learning more about refugees and asylum seekers.
Robert F

She has inspired me to write a book about refugees and asylum seekers and she gave me some more good books to read. I feel that I learned a lot more than I already did, and found out how important it is that we are all treated like humans.
Jack P

I liked most of the books Karen recommended. The book I want to read the most is Shaban.

Ben

I learned a lot about Resugees and Asylum seekers. I've never heard Chrisbesore.

Georgia

The lesson with Karen was interesting because she suggested lots of good books.

Lily

I learned a lot more about refugees and it got me thinking about others in war zones.

I felt like the lesson we had with Karen Argent helped me understand what some children go through.

I enjoyed Karen Argent's talk and would like to now read: The boy in the striped pyjamas; The arrival and When Hitler stole pink rabbit.
Thank you.

Sophie.

I loved the lesson with Karen Argent. It helped me to learn more about Asylum seekers and what happens around the world. Thank you.

I have learnt today about asylum seekers and refugees. Karen has inspired me to read more.

Emma

I thought today's lesson was very interesting and fun about Asylum seekers and refugees.

from Lucy

I thought it was really educational and I learnt a lot more about refugees and asylum seekers that I probably wouldn't have found out.

Clem

I was inspired by Karen's visit because the main subject was refugees. I would like to read Boy Overboard.

Martha

I really feel honoured to have had Karen come in to teach us and I learnt so much that I didn't know. So thank you so much Karen.

Jack T

The lesson with Karen inspired me to write some poems and books about refugees and helped me understand what it would feel like to be a refugee.
Noah

I really enjoyed Karen's visit because she introduced me to many books that sound really good! I would like to read 'When Hitler stole Pink Rabbit.'
Thank you!

Molly

When Karen came, I learnt to think more about the people around us. I was inspired to read the book Shadow and The Other Side of Truth

Bethan

I enjoyed today's Karen's lesson today but found it abit sad. I found out about refugees and asylum seekers.

Madeline

I enjoyed Karen's visit because she helped me think about refugees and inspired me to write my own story about refugees. I also enjoyed thinking about the saying 'we all sleep under the same stars.'
